

*2010 Southside Speedway - Street Stock's
Race of Champions & The "ROC" Open
Eligibility*

The 2010 Southside Speedway Race of Champions for the Street Stock division will take on a new format for the September 3rd night of racing. The race will be 25 laps with a field of 15 cars. Any driver that has won a Street Stock race at Southside Speedway in the last 5 years (2006 – 2010) is automatically qualified for the Race of Champions. A 30 lap, "The ROC Open" will be held for all Street Stock "non-winners" to fill out the remainder of the field. A minimum of 5 cars will advance from The ROC Open, but more spots could be available depending on how many "winners" show up. All winners must register at the driver's meeting on September 3, 2010 to be eligible. Those drivers that have won a Street Stock race in the last 5 years are listed below:
